Clark County, Nevada is the largest county in the state and one of the fastest-growing metropolitan regions in the U.S. The Clark County Commission functions as the primary governing body for over 1 million residents in unincorporated areas and has broad authority over zoning, public safety, infrastructure, and major regional systems such as water and transportation . District F specifically includes parts of southwest Las Vegas Valley, including suburban and exurban communities like Spring Valley, Blue Diamond, and areas near Red Rock Canyon .

Politically, Clark County is competitive but leans Democratic overall, with nonpartisan voters forming the largest registration bloc (~39%), followed by Democrats (~30%) and Republicans (~25%) . Local races can be highly contested and influenced by growth issues, housing, water use, public safety, and development. The 2026 race is an open seat after Democratic Commissioner Justin Jones declined to seek re-election, increasing competitiveness and making it a key battleground for partisan control and local governance direction [Nevada News and Views, 3/9/2026]

Protecting girls' sports is paramount to preserving opportunity for girls across our state. We're taking a stand against this attack on common sense and inviting every voter to join us to show that Nevadans will protect and defend the rights of young women and girls.

I'm proud to join Governor Lombardo in support of the Protect Girls' Sports in Nevada initiative!

Let's get the facts straight:

- ✓ Over 12,000 in one day
- ✓ Over 300,000 in one month
- ✓ Over 2 million in one year

The numbers speak for themselves. We need to secure the border.

"Since President Biden took office, there have been 7.5 million encounters nationwide and 6.2 million encounters at the Southwest border, in addition to 1.7 million known gotaways who evaded U.S. Border Patrol."

Securing our border means securing our country and the safety of millions.
